Customer Reviews

Good information but this book is not cheap; it will set you back about $20.00. If you need quick summaries of cases (there are a handful that don't apply to US law and some that are simply outdated) this is a good source. The book has about 400 pages but in the beginning of each section it will have black letter rule and summary of each cases. You can skip them and go directly to the case summaries itself that also has the analysis and vocabulary.

It will save you a ton on figuring out some of the confusing cases and get straight into learning black letter law.
