Customer Reviews

I received this book a week or so ago. I needed to do an assignment for class and happened to look for/at the CD included with the book. I found a home made CD manually taped in the back of the book. In order for books to be remarketed, they need to have the ORIGINAL CD of the software to accompany the book. This CD was home made on a blank and is totally unacceptable. The advertisement for the book says it comes with the tutorials, not home made ones.

This book looks really nice. No one could tell that I did not get it from the University Bookstore. It was a whole lot cheaper online. I will definitely use this website again.

While the book itself was fine and overall was in good condition, it had a horrible odor to it that made me gag everytime I opened it. Ugh

Arrived on time and same quality as the descitption. Pretty liable buyer. essential book for the class. Will recommend this buyer.
